

Opportunities to Get Involved with the Marching Arts!

Drum Corps Medical Project- volunteer group assisting with the medical needs of the member corps of Drum Corps International

- Athletic Trainers- Many DCI Corps are in need of ATC's to travel with the corps during the summer season
- Other Healthcare providers- offer advice/ guidance to Corps during the season and off season by phone/ at shows
Physicians, NP's, PA's, Dieticians, Podiatrists, etc.
- Research- many avenues are ripe for exploration
  - Injuries, preseason fitness, physiology, sound exposure, dietary requirements, etc.
  - Contact: Steve Rock, MD (srock@mahealthcare.com)
- To volunteer with the DCMP: www.dci.org/forms/dcmp

Assist Local Marching Artists

High School Marching Bands

Collegiate Marching Bands

National Association of Schools of Music

- Health and Wellness Education requirement

-Offer expertise from the sports medicine perspective

Resources:

Drum Corps Medical Project- YouTube Webinar videos about Drum Corps and their medical concerns and issues

<https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLIdy9pmiSATXIW8XgJnaYgVVJAKbBD7I>

Performing Arts Medical Association (PAMA)- www.arts-med.org