

LEAP

Athlete + Dancer Transitions

LEAP Together

Career and Life Transitions
in Dance and Sport

A Groundbreaking Conference

November 11 & 12, 2016
St. James Cathedral Centre
Toronto, Ontario

LEAP Together Career and Life Transitions in Dance and Sport

November 11 & 12, 2016
St. James Cathedral Centre
Toronto, Ontario

The first international conference of its kind in Canada, LEAP Together is a rare opportunity where DANCE and SPORT will connect to exchange knowledge with a diverse group of people passionate about the career and life transitions of professional dancers and elite athletes.

Learn, engage and share knowledge with other professionals, practitioners and sector specialists.

Take away practical tools and best practices and grow your professional networks.

Find out more on our website:
www.leaptransition.ca

Diana Matheson of Canada
THE CANADIAN PRESS/HO, COC,
photograph by Mike Ridewood

Evelyn Hart and Rex Harrington in Roberto Campanella's Decorum (2005)
(photographer unknown)

Special Guest Speakers

Peggy Baker

Peggy Baker is one of Canada's most celebrated and influential dance artists, respected as a performer in the work of esteemed Canadian and American creators, as an educator in important dance training programs throughout North America, and as a choreographer of poetic and visually striking works for her Toronto based company, Peggy Baker Dance Projects. Ms. Baker is Artist-in-Residence at Canada's National Ballet School.

Mark Tewksbury

In 1992 Mark Tewksbury burst onto the international scene following a thrilling come-from-behind victory in the 100-metre backstroke at the Barcelona Olympic Games. This gold medal performance capped a remarkable athletic career, which included three Olympic medals, seven world records, a cover appearance on TIME Magazine and inductions into three major Halls of Fame. Professionally, Mark is a celebrated public speaker known for his ability to lead and inspire.